Dr. Biju Ravindran

Professor and HOD DEPT OF ORTHOPAEDICS NARAYANA MEDICAL COLLEGE NELLORE

- Bed side teaching manners and learning in hospital
- Medical procedural teaching
- What is professionalism
- Learning to be professional

Bed side teaching manners

"Just shut up and take the lollipop."

- The teaching of bedside manners sets the stage for the many episodes of teaching clinical skills at the bedside.
- This will make them better and more effective physicians during the years of their practice of medicine.
- Effective communication with patients impacts clinical outcome and patient satisfaction.

• 6 communication elements:

- acknowledging the patient by name
- introducing themselves by name
- identifying their role
- explaining the care plan
- explaining that multiple providers would see the patient
- providing an estimated duration of time of treatment

- A bedside teacher must learn how to involve patients and learners in the educational processes.
- Specific aspects of bedside teaching should include history taking, physical examination, patient counselling, breaking bad news.
- A planned activity is required to keep everyone engaged and involved in the teaching and learning.
- Bedside is a place for positive learning, and not a place for pointed questioning or criticism of learners.
- 3 domains of best bedside beaching practices are

-attending to patient comfort

- -focused teaching
- -group dynamics.

Medical procedural teaching

Teaching a skill or proceedure

- Teacher explains the proceedure student understands it
- Student explains the proceedure Teacher corrects or adds inputs
- Teacher performs while explaining –student observes
- Clearing of doubts before performing the proceedure
- Assisted performance by the student
- Correction or adding inputs/feedbacks by the teacher
- Assisted performance by the learner while explaining
- Individual performance
- Repeat proceedure
- Teaching the proceedure (reinforcement)

PROFESSIONALISM

Professional competence is the habitual and judicious use of communication, knowledge, technical skills, clinical reasoning, emotions, values, and reflection in daily practice for the benefit of the individual and community being served.

The attributes of a professional

Attributes of Professionalism

- Specialized Knowledge
- Competency
- Honesty and Integrity
- Accountability
- Self-Regulation
- Image

Specialized Knowledge

Professionals make a deep personal commitment to develop and improve their skills.

Competency

- Professionals get the job done.
- Professionals are reliable.
- Professionals keep their promises.
- Professionals don't make excuses, but focus on finding solutions.

Honesty and Integrity

- Professionals don't lie, cheat, or steal.
- Professionals can be trusted.
- Professionals don't compromise their values.
- Professionals will do the right thing even if it means taking a harder road.

Accountability

 Professionals hold themselves accountable for their thoughts, words, and actions – especially when they've made a mistake.

• Accountability is closely tied to honesty and integrity and is a vital element in professionalism.

Self-Regulation

• Professionalism under pressure.

 Professionals show respect for the people around them, no matter what their role or situation.

 They exhibit a high degree of emotional intelligence by considering the emotions and needs of others.

IMAGE

Dr. NO

or

DR.YES

- Professionals should look the part.
- They don't show up at work sloppily dressed, with unkempt hair.
- They dress appropriately for the situation
- Because of this, they exude an air of confidence and they gain respect for this.

Standards for Student Conduct

- Demonstrate courtesy, even when others do not.
- Behave in a responsible manner, always exercising discipline.

- Attend all classes, regularly and on time.
- Prepare for each class

• Meet campus standards of grooming and dress.

• Obey all campus and classroom rules.

Standards for Student Conduct

- Respect the rights and privileges of other students, teachers, and other staff.
- Respect the property of others and facilities.

• Adhere to the requirements of the Code of Conduct.

Thank you.....Have a great day

